Mount Clemens School Board Member Elected To National School Boards Association Executive Committee

Alexandria, Va. – May 25, 2005 – Earl C. Rickman, a school board member in Mount Clemens, MI has been elected to a one-year term on the executive committee of the National School Boards Association (NSBA).

The NSBA Board of Directors voted to elect Rickman on April 18, 2005, during the NSBA Annual Conference in San Diego, Calif. He has been a member of the NSBA Board of Directors since April 2003.

Rickman has served on the Mount Clemens Board of Education for 20 years, 10 of those years he has served as President. He is currently serving as Recording Secretary for the National Alliance of Black School Educator's, Board of Director's for the National School Boards Association, Board of Director's Michigan Association of School Boards, and Past President of The National Caucus of Black School Board Members.

Founded in 1940, the National School Boards Association is a not-for profit federation of state associations of school boards representing 95,000 local school board members throughout the United States. Its mission is to foster excellence and equity in public elementary and secondary education through local school board leadership. NSBA represents the school board perspective in working with federal government agencies and national organizations that impact education, and provides vital information and services to state associations of school boards throughout the nation.
